SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

01ST November 2026

Children's Newsletter

Welcome to St Brigid's Little Church. Please enjoy the activities and readings in this week's children's newsletter.

REFLECTION CORNER WITH FATHER GILTUS

Dearest Children,

Today we celebrate All Saints, the friends of Jesus who showed God's love in their lives. Did you know that you are called to be a saint too?
In the Beatitudes, Jesus teaches us to be gentle, show mercy and make peace. We can do this by forgiving someone, including a child who feels left out, or helping friends settle an argument. Little choices can make a big difference!
🌟 Your Challenge This Week: Be a peacemaker! Use kind words, say sorry, or help someone feel welcome.

Remember: Becoming a saint begins with loving like Jesus, one little choice at a time! ❤️

WHO AM I?

Draw a line to match the saints to the clues.

- I am the patron saint of sailors, archers and children.
- I am strongly linked to Christmas.
- Some people believe I leave gifts for children.

- I am the patron saint of Ireland.
- I used a shamrock to explain
- Christianity to people.
- My feast day, 17th March, is
- celebrated with parades all over the world.

Saint Brigid

Saint Nicholas

Saint Joseph

Saint Patrick

- I was a nun and looked after the poor.
- I wanted to build a church and the king said I could have as much land as my cloak covered. A miracle happened and my cloak grew to be enormous!

- I was the husband of Mary and the earthly father of Jesus.
- I was a carpenter.
- I had a great faith and commitment to God.

The poor in spirit are blessed, for the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

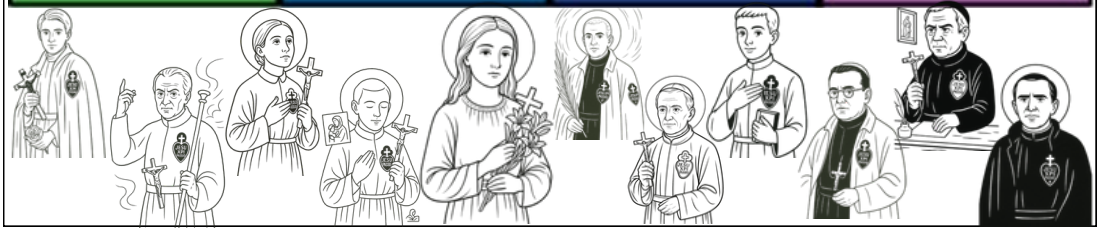
Those who mourn are blessed, for they will be comforted.

The gentle are blessed, for they will inherit the earth.

Those who hunger and thirst for righteousness are blessed, for they will be filled.

The merciful are blessed, for they will be shown mercy.

The pure in heart are blessed, for they will see God.

The peacemakers are blessed, for they will be called sons of God.


Those who are persecuted for righteousness are blessed, for the kingdom of heaven is theirs.
